

NCCC Oncology Disease Specific Study Guide

Speaker: _____

Title: _____

Please fill in the blanks on this study guide. Your answers will help with comprehension and with any quizzes or exams about this lecture's content. Note that a presenter might or might not present information on each of the points in this study guide.

Disease Overview

What do oncology professionals know about the disease?

Disease Prevention

What steps can an individual take that might help to prevent this form of cancer?

Disease Screening (Symptoms and Diagnosis)

What symptoms does this form of cancer show, and how do oncology professionals diagnose this disease?

Disease Treatment

What methods do oncology professionals use to treat this form of cancer? How effective are they?

Latest Advancements in Treatment

What are some recent advancements in treatment of this disease, and how do they work?

Case Study

What was the diagnosis and treatment plan for this patient? How effective were they?

Caregiving Support Networks

What caregiving support networks are available to patients with this cancer? How do they help?

Career Paths

What career paths are available to individuals who want to help patients with this disease?
